Healthy Products for a Healthy World

Christopher Gavigan's '97 entire life is focused on providing families with healthy resources. His current role as co-founder, along with actress Jessica Alba, of The Honest Company, in Playa Vista, CA, is to provide safe, natural, effective and affordable products including baby and personal care, vitamins, cleaning and beauty. Read more about his connection to UCSB.

Gavigan will be the keynote speaker at this year's All Gaucho Reunion Showcase on Saturday, April 28th. Secure your free tickets for this event.

12th Annual All Gaucho Reunion

Start a new chapter in your UCSB story at the Gaucho Festival. This exciting all-day event will feature the Gaucho Gallop benefit run, Kid's Zone, Taste of UCSB Beer and Wine Garden, Food Trucks, music and more. News

Ask Sacramento to keep UC Affordable

Join our UC community in calling on our state lawmakers to invest in the University of California. UC educates 90,000 more students now than in 2000, but with the same level of state funding. Today's students deserve the same great University of California education as previous generations. It's an investment that benefits us all. Advocate now.

UC Alumni UK Charity Gala

The third annual UC Alumni UK Charity Gala on March 17th was a fantastic night with over 120 alumni and friends raising over $30,000 for UC student scholarships! See photos of Gaucho alumni at the event.

Great Way for UCSB Alumni Parents to Vacation
